About Karatta:

Karatta Wines is located in the Robe region with an extensive portfolio of estate grown wines. They are committed to the production of ready to drink and age-worthy wines that authentically reflect the maritime climate: characterized by lithe, elegant reds and crisp, snappy whites which are typically less bombastic than wines from the warmer growing regions of South Australia.

About Robe:

- Gained AGI status in 2006 and is part of the Limestone Coast wine zone.
- The region's cool climate wines are acclaimed for their distinctive character and premium quality.
- Vineyard development began to flourish in the Robe region in the mid to late 1990's.
